A meeting of the Band takes place tomorrow evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Court House. A general attendance of members is requested.

"Caustigua" was received too late for this week's issue: it will appear in our next. J. H., King-Your article has been unavoidably crowded out this week.

We have no news of a successor ! the late Provincial Secretary, as we go Press, Romor rays, that the hout, thus far, of Mr. Cartier, in the Eastern part of Canada, to find a suitable man to fill the vacancy, has proven an entire failure.

At a meeting of the Committee of the Mechanics' Institute, held recently, we understand arrangements were made for commencing the Lectures the first Friday evening in December next. In all probability the Lectures will commence this season by an inauguiatory address from the President, Col. Rer-

In the second column of reading matter, and the paragraph commencing-" I have not;" and in the eightb :me, read " responsible office," instead of "respectable."
